

Bylaws of San Diego County Bicycle Coalition - Approved by the Board on April 26th, 2017

ARTICLE I - Name, Office, and Duration

1. Name. The name of this corporation is the San Diego County Bicycle Coalition, hereinafter referred to as the Coalition or the Corporation

2. Location. The principal place of business and administrative office shall be determined from time to time by the Board.

3. Duration. The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE II - Purpose

1. Purpose. The San Diego County Bicycle Coalition advocates for and protects the rights of all people who ride bicycles. We promote bicycling as a mainstream, safe and enjoyable form of transportation and recreation.

2. The Coalition is organized exclusively for charitable and/or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future federal law.

ARTICLE III - Membership

1. Membership. Membership shall be open to all persons and Board-approved organizations interested in promoting bicycling as a form of transportation and recreation upon payment of annual dues as set by the Board of Directors. Individual, Bicycle Club, and Organization members have one vote each at General Membership meetings.

2. Membership shall be for one year from payment of dues. Upon payment, the member shall be deemed to be in good standing.

ARTICLE IV- Board of Directors

1. Composition of the Board. The Board of Directors shall consist of one director called a club representative for each member bicycle club and Board-approved organization, and, except as provided hereinafter, an equal number of at-large directors. Directors shall hold office for one year terms, from the January following the election through December of the same year.

A. A Bicycle Club (hereinafter referred to as Club) is defined as a member bicycle club that pays annual dues to the Coalition. Club representatives shall be chosen and removed by Clubs in accordance with their established procedures.

B. A Board-Approved Organization (hereinafter referred to as Organization) is defined as an organization approved by the Board that includes Bike/Walk Committees that work within San Diego County and social clubs that hold events within San Diego County.

2. Election. Directors hold office for one year or until the next general election of the Board, except for one time only, the July 2017 election will be for a period of 6 months, in order to permanently transition the election calendar to match the fiscal calendar. Election of the Directors will be held in November of each year.

A. Election Committee. In July, the Board of Directors will appoint an Election Committee, whose responsibility will be to develop a list of at-large candidates. The Elections Committee is strongly encouraged to provide a greater number of candidates than there are open positions. The list of nominees shall be presented at the October Board meeting, at which time additional nominations will be accepted from the floor and voted on by the Board.

B. Ballots. All members in good standing may vote by secret ballot. Member voting shall ordinarily be conducted electronically via email or online web voting (referred to herein as "electronic ballot"). Member voting may also be conducted by written ballot at the discretion of the Board. The candidates receiving the most votes will be elected to a number of at-large positions equal to the number of Club and Organization directors at the time of the meeting. If a tie occurs for the last at-large position, a coin flip will determine the elected board member among those that are tied.

3. Powers. The Board of Directors shall have all corporate authority, except such powers as are otherwise provided in these bylaws and the laws of the State of California, to conduct the affairs of the Corporation in accordance with these bylaws. The Board of Directors may by general resolution delegate to committees of their own number, or to officers of the Corporation such powers as they deem appropriate.

4. Duties. The duties of the Board of Directors will be:

A. To choose from its membership the Coalition officers.

B. To choose from among its members the chairs of all standing and ad hoc committees. Committee chairs must be members of the Board of Directors.

C. To provide the final approval of yearly budget, major policy decisions changing the direction of the Coalition, and questions regarding the organizational structure of the Coalition.

D. To act on an item of business that has been properly published in the agenda, or at the same meeting if such action is warranted by the emergency nature of the item.

E. To bring all items for action to a vote that shall become policy if passed by a simple majority of the directors present and in good standing.

5. Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place and time designated by the Board of Directors including phone conference calls, monthly or annual meetings, or otherwise called by a majority of the Board of Directors. All meetings of the Board of Directors and its committees shall be open to attendance by any member, but the Board of Directors or its committees may convene in private session for the consideration of any sensitive matter, provided that any vote or final action is taken in open session.

6. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the Chair or a majority of the Board of Directors. Persons authorized to call special meetings shall provide notice of the time and location of such meetings and state the purpose thereof, and no other matter shall be considered by the Board of Directors at such special meeting.

7. Annual Meetings. Directors shall call a general membership meeting each year for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and transaction of other business. The time and location of such meeting shall be noticed in writing.

8. Notice and Waiver. Notice of regular meetings and special meetings need not be in writing. Attendance at any meeting shall be considered waiver of the notice requirement thereof.

9. Quorum. A quorum shall consist of at least 33% of the Directors. If at any meeting, less than a quorum is present, the majority may adjourn the meeting without further notice to the absent Directors.

10. Vacancy. An at-large vacancy is created whenever the number of incumbent atlarge directors falls below the number of directors from Clubs and Board-approved Organizations, whether by the removal or resignation of an incumbent at-large director or the admission of a new Club or Organization. Such a vacancy may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum. Each person so elected shall serve until the next annual election. If the number of Club members decreases, incumbent at-large directors shall continue to serve until the next annual meeting, even though their number may exceed the number of directors from Clubs and Organizations.

11. Removal. Any Director may be removed by majority vote of the remaining Directors for failure to act in the best interests of the Coalition, or lack of sympathy with the stated purpose of the Coalition or failure to follow the policies or bylaws of the Coalition. A vote for board member removal can only occur at a regularly scheduled meeting where the item was placed on the written agenda distributed at least 15 days ahead of the meeting. The Board shall provide the Director at least 15 days' prior notice of the reasons for the expulsion vote; and the Director shall have an opportunity to be heard, in writing, at least five days before the effective date of the expulsion by the Board of Directors.

12. Compensation. Directors shall receive no compensation for their service as Directors.

13. Proxy Voting Prohibited. Proxy voting shall not be permitted on any matter put to the vote of the members, Board or Committees.
